Built for a Bishop, fit for a King.

Standing high on the wooded slopes of the Holywood hills, overlooking Belfast Lough and the County Antrim coastline, is the magnificent Culloden Estate and Spa, Northern Ireland's most prestigious hotel.

Originally built as an official palace for the Bishops of Down, the Culloden stands in 12 acres of beautiful secluded gardens and woodland and is only five miles from Belfast City Centre. Palatial surroundings, fine antiques and the highest levels of personal service combine to give the Culloden a unique air of elegance.

Stay in luxury

As befits Northern Ireland's leading 5 Star hotel, each of the 105 guest bedrooms is exquisitely decorated and tastefully furnished. Many have stunning views over the Estate and Belfast Lough, and the County Antrim coastline especially the magnificent Palace Suite, one of Ireland's finest bedroom suites.

Marry in style or Conference in confidence!

The superb and highly flexible Stuart Suite is one of Northern Ireland's largest function suites, seating up to 600 guests for a formal banquet. With its wonderful views over the estate, Lough and coastline, this suite is highly sought after for grand events and fairytale weddings, and is equally popular for large conferences, exhibitions and meetings. The Stuart Suite enjoys its own dedicated private bar and reception area, and a spectacular marble atrium entrance, giving a grand sense of arrival. The Culloden also offers five flexible boardroom suites, along with a dedicated business reception area with secretarial services.

Fine Dining in Stunning Surroundings

The Mitre Restaurant is one of the finest restaurants in Northern Ireland. With breathtaking views over Belfast Lough, it serves modern Irish Cuisine using the finest and freshest local produce. Guests at the hotel can also enjoy an extensive range of dining and socialising options, including our famous Afternoon tea in the splendid new Crozier bar and lounge. The Cultra Inn, complete with log fires, is a cosy bar and bistro which nestles within the Estate, and is perfect for a tasty lunch or pint by the fireside.

Within Pitching Distance of Many Fine Golf Courses

The Culloden is just a nine iron away from many fine parkland courses, the most renowned of which is Royal Belfast. This superb 18-hole parkland course sits on the edge of Belfast Lough, just next door to the hotel and has a unique pedigree. Founded in 1881 it is Ireland's oldest golf club and it is as prestigious as it is charming. Guests can enjoy privileged tee-off times at Royal Belfast and the hotel Concierge can make the necessary arrangements.

History & Adventure on your doorstep

With all its tranquil opulence you could be forgiven for thinking the Culloden is a rural retreat. It has the added advantage of being just minutes from Belfast's bustling City centre. Minutes too from the endless beaches, lush woodlands, championship golf courses, horse riding and sailing that County Down has to offer. The Culloden is also convenient to many of Northern Ireland's major visitor attractions:

- The Ulster Folk and Transport Museum, which recreates Northern Irish life as it was a Century ago, is just next door to the hotel.
- Holywood town, only 5 minutes from the hotel, is a treasure trove of unique boutiques, craft and antique shops.
- Mount Stewart, a National Trust property famous for its glorious landscaping and ranked among the top five gardens in Ireland, is only twenty minutes away.
