The Slieve Donard Resort is the perfect base from which to explore the locations where many pivotal scenes were shot for Game of Thrones®. The producers used locations across Northern Ireland, but the spectacular Castle Ward estate, with its magnificent gardens and woodland overlooking Strangford Lough has enjoyed many appearances. Within this part of County Down the site of Inch Abbey near Downpatrick, Tollymore Forest and the granite mountain range of Leitrim Lodge were all also used as settings for the lands around Winterfell.

To find out more about these areas of interest ask any member of staff for assistance.
